

College Rep

The College has been notified by the State Board of Education regarding the proposed changes to the Catalog Rights and AP courses.

Reciprocity and GE Pathway Programs

The College has been notified by the Academic Senate regarding the proposed changes to the GE pathway programs. The proposed changes include the addition of new GE courses and the modification of existing GE courses. The proposed changes are being reviewed by the Academic Senate and the Board of Trustees. The proposed changes will be implemented for the 2024-25 academic year.

A Variety of Admissions Policies

The College has a variety of admissions policies, including:

Catalog Rights— Or AP courses that are listed in the Catalog of Courses and are approved by the State Board of Education. Catalog Rights courses are approved by the State Board of Education and are listed in the Catalog of Courses.

Academic Renewal— Or AP courses that are approved by the State Board of Education and are listed in the Catalog of Courses.

Grade Alleviation— Or AP courses that are approved by the State Board of Education and are listed in the Catalog of Courses.

Course Substitutions for All Degrees/Certificates— We do not have a policy for course substitutions for all degrees/certificates. We do have a policy for course substitutions for all degrees/certificates.

GE Reciprocity— We do not have a policy for GE reciprocity. We do have a policy for GE reciprocity.

Course Waivers and Substitutions for Students with Verified Disabilities— This is a policy for course waivers and substitutions for students with verified disabilities. This is a policy for course waivers and substitutions for students with verified disabilities.

ESL and ENGM

The department has a Secd Lagg and is a part of the College. The department has a Secd Lagg and is a part of the College. The department has a Secd Lagg and is a part of the College. The department has a Secd Lagg and is a part of the College.

brief report,