

Changes to the existing governance structure include:

- The current Administrative Services Committee and Facilities Committee will no longer be separate committees, with duties and oversight now part of the Institutional Resources Council.
- The current Academic Affairs Council and Student Affairs Council will no longer be separate councils, with shared duties and oversight now part of the Student
- The current Online Services Committee and Technology Development Council will no longer be separate committees/councils, with shared duties and oversight now part of the Technology Learning Support Council.

Academic Senate standing committees remain the same (Curriculum Committee, D.E. Committee, Faculty Professional Development Committee, Full-Time Faculty Hiring Committee, Program Planning Outcomes & Assessment (formerly Outcomes & Assessment), and the Student Success and Equity Committee (formerly Student Success Committee). The Hartnell College District will continue to rely primarily on the Academic Se

COUNCILS AND OVERSIGHT

The Hartnell College Council focuses on issues affecting the entire college and can generate requests for the councils.
