A) New Course ART

- 1) ART 18 The Intersection of Creative and Critical Thinking: Aesthetics
Designed to provide a course for students that exposes them to the core competency of Aesthetic Analysis and Application. Prepare students for the reality of 21st-century employment that requires creative thinking as a part of critical thinking. Content and objective related to the evolution of ideas over historic periods to the present and the connection of ideas and cultures was added. The course will be submitted for UC and CSU transfer and general education patterns.

(a) Course approval:

B) New Degrees

The committee was reminded that all new certificates will also need Department of Education approval (in addition to other external approvals) before being offered.

1) Associate in Science for Transfer in Computer Science

(a) Program Approval:

2) Associate in Science for Transfer in Agriculture Plant Science

(a) Program Approval:

(b) Associate of Science in Agriculture, with emphases

This is a revision of the AS in Agriculture Business, and the AS in Agriculture Production. Since it is a significant revision that includes adding emphases, it is a two reading item and this is the second reading.

The committee had discussion about each emphasis being developed into a Certificate of Achievement. The existing certificates aren't being changed for 2019-20 catalog, but should be revised in time for the 2020-2021 catalog deadlines.

(i) Program Approval:

C) CWE Plan

The committee received a presentation about CWEE and the proposed plan. There was discussion about difficulties with students registering for additional CWE 99 courses up to the maximum number of units. It should be allowed (variable unit courses can be taken up to the max number of units) but the registration system isn't set up to allow this. It has been an approvals.
