1. Request for New or Additional Space

Joseph Reyes

ICS - Building T

Ben stated that over the summer the occupants of Building T were relocated to Building E causing Building T to become available. The request brought forward for first reading and discussion is to use terminals set up. Kenny added that at other places including the federal government, Emergency Operations Centers are not housed within a main building. In the event of an emergency, this would be a place for multi-agency use. Ben stated that no additional funds are needed for this request. Ben added that action will be taken at the October meeting. Ben and Kenny responded to questions and discussion followed. Ben informed the members that Kenny will be at the October meeting in order to answer any further questions and he will have additional information gathered by that time.

2. New FDC Handbook

This item was inadvertently skipped and will appear on the October meeting agenda.

3. Restroom Signage

Amy Lehman

Amy Lehman began by stating this item came through the Office of Student Life and they would like that consideration be given to adding transgender restroom signs on the accessible restrooms.

Additionally, there are some signs on campus regarding guide dogs but that is no longer the correct term. Ben stated that recently the service animal Board policy was updated by Student Affairs and Facilities will work on updating the signage to match the Board policy. Ben asked Joseph Reyes to provide an update at the October meeting. Further, Ben asked if there is a policy related to
