BOARD MEETING
MANAGEMENT SOFTWARE

Hartnell Community College District is considering using board management software to manage the preparation, posting, and distribution of board materials. Many other California community college districts have already taken this step as a way of improving public access to governing board related materials, decreasing time, effort, and expense in producing governing board meeting materials, enhancing the experience of governing board meetings for the public and the trustees, and reducing paper waste. The solutions have proven themselves to save both time and money for the institution without adding complexity to meeting preparation or
