

HARTNELL COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

AP 4102 Career and Technical Education Program

References: Title 5 Sections 55600 et seq. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200 (The Federal Education Department General Administrative Regulations, 2nd Edition); 34 Code of Federal Regulations Part 600 (U.S. Department of Education regulations on the Integrity of Federal Student Financial Aid Programs under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended); ACCJC Accreditation Standard II.A.14

Consistent with federal regulations pertaining to federal financial aid eligibility, the Vice President of Academic Affairs will ensure that Hartnell College complies with the United States employment programs, by disclosing federally mandated information about the programs to prospective students. Hartnell College shall make the required disclosures available to prospective students in promotional materials and on its website.

College and potential employers. The committee shall consist of one or more representatives of the general public knowledgeable about the workforce needs, including business and industry representatives, students, faculty, school administration, and the field office of the Employment Development Department

Advisory committees are used for planning purposes, curriculum development, college relations, and maintaining career technical education programs that are relative to job needs and up to date with current field practices.

Functions of a Career/Technical Education Committee

- " To study the educational needs of a specific career technical education program and to make recommendations to Hartnell College program faculty and administration relating to program review.
- " To interpret the program to the college.
- " To furnish specialized information and advice on technical requirements for the effective operation of the program.
- " To provide channels of communication between Hartnell College and the community organizations and agencies of the community interested in the program.

” To further a cooperative relationship between Hartnell College and the resource agencies of the community in support of the program.

Operation of the Committee

” The chairperson of