

: California Code - Chapter 2: Child Care and Development Services Act [8200. - 8498.]; Title 5, Division 1, Chapter 19 and 19.5, [18000 - 18434]; Title 22, Division 12, Chapter 1 Section 101151

The Governing Board recognizes the importance of providing child development services to Hartnell College students and the greater community. The purpose of this is to:

- assist students in understanding the growth and development of young children,
- provide the community with a model program, and
- provide young children with a comprehensive preschool education.
