Focusing on the needs of the Salinas Valley, Hartnell College provides educational opportunities for students to reach academic goals in an environment committed to student learning, achievement and success. ]

4. Student Success and Support Program Plan

Romero Jalomo

Dr. Mark Sanchez, Dean of Student Affairs, delivered a presentation on the Student Success and Support Program (SSSP) Plan for academic year 2015-16. Dr. Sanchez reported that every community college district that receives SSSP funding is required to submit an annual plan; this year's plan is due October 30, 2015. Dr. Sanchez acknowledged and thanked the committee that worked on the plan over the summer and into this fall. The plan has been presented to various campus groups, including the Board of Trustees, student government, and Academic Senate.

The SSSP Plan focuses on the College's approach to serve incoming and enrolled students in the following core areas:

- Orientation

- Assessment testing

- Academic Counseling- development of a student educational plan (SEP)

- Follow up services for at-risk population students

The plan also focuses on the integration of institutional research and technology in identifying and addressing the needs of students on campus.
