1. Review of HC Mission, Vision, and Value Statements

The college's mission statement should be regularly reviewed and updated as necessary to ensure that it accurately reflects the college's purposes. Additionally, ACCJC Accreditation Standard I.A.4 states the following:

".IIIIrdfp nl AcTffission if aswidely published statement approved by the governing board. The mission statement is periodically reviewed and updated as necessary."

In an effort to provide as much opportunity for input as possible, a college wide survey has been initiated to gather input and suggestions about the mission statement. In addition, closely linked to the college mission are the college vision and college values. Your input into this review is highly valued and important as the college develops plans and makes decisions.

Please take a few minutes to provide your input on these three institutional components that are central to college planning and institutional effectiveness. The survey will be available until Friday, January 19, 2018, 5 pm. Thank you for your participation.

4. Review of HC Mission Statement
Definition: A mission statement defines the organization's purpose and primary objectives. The mission statement articulates the organization's purpose both for those in the organization and for the public. It also defines who the mission is intended to serve.
ACCJC Accreditation Standard I.A.1 states the following:
"The mission describes the institution's broad educational purposes, its intended student population, the types of degrees and other credentials it offers, and its commitment to student learning and student achievement."
Please respond to the following survey items regarding the current mission statement.
